PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Jefferson County, Washington recognizes the diversity of sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression, and affirms the right of all individuals to live freely and without discrimination; and

WHEREAS, our Nation continues to face tragic levels of violence against transgender people, especially transgender youth and women of color; and

WHEREAS, 2SLGBTQIA+ individuals - especially youth who defy sex or gender norms - face bullying and harassment in educational settings and are at a disproportionate risk of self-harm and death by suicide; and

WHEREAS, in its efforts to be safe, diverse and inclusive, Jefferson County actively seeks to implement policy that is fair and protects the rights and dignity of all; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate and honor the contributions the 2SLGBTQIA + community makes to the fabric, stability and well-being of our community, including valued employees of Jefferson County; and

WHEREAS, the Jefferson County Board of County Commissioners passed a Human Rights Proclamation on February 6, 2023 declaring our commitment to protecting the inalienable human rights, dignity and equality of all individuals, regardless of age, race, national origin, immigration and citizenship status, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, religion, creed or ability;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Jefferson County Board of County Commissioners hereby proclaims June 2025 as

Pride Month

In Jefferson County, we reaffirm our commitment to ensuring that Jefferson County remains a safe and welcoming place for all, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. We encourage all residents and visitors to join with people and organizations around the world in celebrating the spirit of the vibrant 2SLGBTQIA + community and to renew our commitment to ensuring civil rights for all.

PROCLAIMED this 2nd day of June, 2025.
