

Dear Hon. Heidi Eisenhour,

As president of the National Association of Counties (NACo), it is my pleasure to confirm your nomination as a Public Lands Steering Committee member and offer my congratulations!

National Committee membership is a serious responsibility that takes commitment, but it is also a rewarding experience. NACo's strength is in our committees, and your active participation will add to that strength. The expertise and engagement of our steering committee members like you is a major reason why Congress and federal agencies often look to NACo for feedback on legislative policy decisions being made in Washington D.C. This nomination to a NACo steering committee also presents a great opportunity to share information and learn from your county colleagues.

As a member of the Public Lands Steering Committee, it is important to stay informed of legislative and regulatory action relevant to your committee. Your NACo committee liaison is Jonathan Shuffield (jshuffield@naco.org), and the legislative assistant for this committee is Owen Hart (ohart@naco.org). Jonathan will send regular email correspondence to committee members, and you are responsible for reviewing the information supplied and responding accordingly.

As a member of a NACo steering committee, you are expected to participate in our monthly conference calls and attend both NACo's Legislative Conference and Annual Conference. Monthly conference calls are a great way to stay up to date on developments from Capitol Hill and provide a platform to discuss county issues with your colleagues across the nation. Please note the following dates and locations for the upcoming conferences:

- NACo's 2023 Legislative Conference, February 11 – 14, 2023 in Washington, DC
- NACo's 2023 Annual Conference, July 21-24, 2023, in Travis County/Austin, Texas

Again, congratulations on your nomination to the Public Lands Steering Committee. This promises to be an exciting year, and I look forward to working closely with you to further the goals of our nation's counties.

Sincerely,

Denise Winfrey
President
